Letter From The Editor – Braden Pastore

We haven't had a Club sanctioned show since our Cruise In at the Pavilions in early March but that doesn't mean I get to take a month off :(

Luckily, Jim W. provided us with a report from the show at the Martin Auto Museum and we still have the Concours in the Hills to look forward to.

As usual, I'm soliciting articles from other members (thanks again, Jim) and I'm still waiting for someone to take the 6Cylinders/6Questions survey. Somebody has to go first...

The Club email is cactuscorvairclub@gmail.com I'd love to see something in that inbox someday.

Concours In The Hills – Braden Pastore

It's April. That means that the rescheduled Concours in the Hills will be coming up shortly. The event will take place on April 19th. Registration is now closed again but you can still attend as a guest. The Club will be meeting at the Wendy's parking lot on Shea Boulevard at 7AM the morning of the show so that we can ride in and park together. Details are on the Club Calendar.

You could be a part of this!

Martin Auto Museum Show – Jim Walker

Editor's note: I stole the text verbatim from Jim's email to Dave W

The car show at Martin Museum was sponsored by Martin Museum itself, whereas the previous ones were a Nancy Perry production. As such, the show this time was lightly attended. I have attached a few pictures of the show. There were 2 Corvairs: our Rampside and a 1965 coupe owned by Tom Johnson. I didn't get a chance to talk with Tom, as I went by his car multiple times, but he was not there

I met a husband/wife from Washington State at the show. They own a fruit orchard (Olmstead Orchards) in western Washington (Grandview). They also own 7 Corvairs and the wife wants to get rid of 6 of them. They are snowbirds and live here in Peoria from late November until late April/early May. We exchanged business cards and I told him about Cactus Corvair Club and the next online meeting. I also mentioned that if he was attending the meeting, he could talk about the cars. He will email me some pics as well. Also mentioned the National Corvair meeting in San Luis Obispo.

The Waaaaaay Back Page – Braden Pastore

This month we have a poster from 1990. This was a precursor of the Concours. Looks like we were up the hill from the fountain. Note that the entry fee was 8 bucks 25 years ago. Now it's 75 bucks but you get to park on grass :)
