OLD BUSINESS

We will be having a picnic at the Lost Dutchman State Park on Saturday April 6 at 11:00 AM. We will meet at the Palo Verde Ramada. This will also be our meeting time instead of the Wednesday April 3 date. All who are attending the picnic, please bring a covered dish of food to share. The club will be providing the meat for grilling, plates, utensils, and water. If you need something other than water, please bring it along. Please see the CactusCorvair.com website for directions to the park.

There was some talk about the Route 66 road trip again this May, but so few seemed interested that we have cancelled it for now. Perhaps there will be more people interested in cooler weather.

It won't be too long until we have our annual October show, so get those cars polished and running. I hope Gary and Bob will read this part.

Just for Laugh's

When I was a young minister, a funeral director asked me to hold a grave side service for a homeless man with no family or friends. The funeral was to be at a cemetery way out in the country. This was a new cemetery and this man was the first to be laid to rest there.

I was not familiar with the area and became lost. Being a typical man, of course, I did not ask for directions. I finally found the cemetery about an hour late. The back hoe was there and the crew was eating their lunch. The hearse was nowhere to be seen.

I apologized to the workers for being late. As I looked into the open grave, I saw the vault lid already in place. I told the workers I would not keep them long, but that this was the proper thing to do. The workers, still eating their lunch, gathered around the opening.

I was young and enthusiastic and poured out my heart and soul as I preached. The workers joined in with, "Praise the Lord," "Amen," and "Glory!" I got so into the service that I preached and preached and preached, from Genesis to The Revelation.

When the service was over, I said a prayer and walked to my car. As I opened the door, I heard one of the workers say, "I never saw anything like that before and I've been putting in septic systems for twenty years."

Cleaning the Attic

While cleaning the attic, Joan and Harry found an old stub for some shoes they left at the repair shop 10 years ago. They thought it would be funny to go to the shop and see if the shoes were still there. So they did. They handed the stub to the repair man who took it and looked in the back. He came out again and said, "They'll be ready on Wednesday."
